NWS Holdings appoints Stanley Hui Hon Chung as Deputy Chief Executive Officer

(24 August 2015, Hong Kong) NWS Holdings Limited (“NWS Holdings” or the “Group”; Hong Kong stock code: 659) today announced the appointment of Mr Stanley Hui Hon Chung as an executive director and Deputy Chief Executive Officer of the Group with effect from 1 September 2015. Mr Patrick Lam Wai Hon, an executive director of the Group, will be re-designated as a non-executive director with effect from 1 January 2016.

Commenting on the appointment, NWS Holdings Chief Executive Officer Mr Tsang Yam Pui said, “Stanley brings with him a wealth of management and leadership expertise from his 40 years of successful career. His track record in the aviation industry and deep knowledge of Mainland China and Asia Pacific markets will help drive the expansion of our existing infrastructure and services portfolio, in particular our aviation business.”

In February this year, NWS Holdings acquired 40% equity interest in Goshawk Aviation Limited, which is principally engaged in commercial aircraft leasing with a fleet of 44 aircraft to-date. In addition, the Group is the second largest shareholder of Beijing Capital International Airport Co., Ltd. following its share acquisition in December 2013.

Mr Hui, aged 64, began his aviation career in 1975 and held a range of management positions at Cathay Pacific Airways Limited. In 1997, he joined Hong Kong Dragon Airlines Limited as its Chief Executive Officer. Mr Hui served as the Chief Executive Officer of Hong Kong Airport Authority between 2007 and 2014. He is an independent non-executive director of Air China Limited.

Mr Patrick Lam, an executive director of the Group since 2003, will step down from his current role in order to devote more time to his other commitments. He will continue to serve the Group as a non-executive director. The re-designation will be effective 1 January 2016.
