NWS Holdings fosters family-friendly environment with theme park outing for over 8,000 staff and family members

(7 October 2015, Hong Kong) NWS Holdings Limited (“NWS Holdings” or the “Group”; Hong Kong stock code: 659) attracted a record-breaking 8,000-plus staff and family members to the NWS Adventure Day this year. The event on 26 September was a fun-filled day at Hong Kong Disneyland, and featured a dazzling opening ceremony, the Festival of the Lion King show, and an exclusive preview of Disney Haunted Halloween.

The NWS Adventure Day was kicked off by Patrick Lam, Executive Director of NWS Holdings, together with management of the Group’s member companies. Participants enjoyed not only the fantastic attractions but also exclusive special offers on meals and shopping, and a lucky draw.

NWS Holdings believes human capital is its most valuable asset and is key to the Group’s long-term business success. Active engagement with staff fosters a strong sense of belonging and builds team spirit. The Group also extends its care to the families of staff. Special events such as the NWS Adventure Day and annual Family Movie Day enable staff to spend quality time with their families and at the same time reinforce the Group’s family-friendly culture. With its all-embracing human resources policies and practices, the Group strives to ensure that staff can take real pride in being part of NWS Holdings’ success.
